

THE MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL RIGHTS PRESENTS MI RESPONSE TO HATE

RACE-BASED HATE AND BIAS: WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE AND WHAT WE CAN DO TO PREVENT IT

WE'LL EXPLORE:

- What the Data Shows: A look at hate crime and bias trends in Michigan and beyond.
- The Psychology of a Hate Crime: Dr. Frank S. Pezzella, John Jay College of Criminal Justice at CUNY on the motivations behind hate crimes targeting Black Americans.
- A Case Study: FBI Special Agent Patrick Geahan will deconstruct a 2020 hate crime in Sterling State Park near Monroe, MI.
- Preventing Race-Based Hate and Bias in Your Sphere of Influence: What we can learn from businesses and organizations working now to prevent race-based hate and bias in our communities.

REGISTER HERE TO ATTEND THIS ZOOM VIRTUAL EVENT.

Only those attending via ZOOM may participate in Q & A.

View the livestream of this event at Facebook.com/MIDCR.

THURSDAY,
FEB. 24, 2022
6 - 8 P.M.

ASL interpreters and live CART captioning will be provided for this session.

